Relational Leadership and Learning for Hope-full and Sustainable Futures
International Dialogue 2015

8-10 July 2015 Flinders University Adelaide Australia

Invitation

The International Dialogue series is for people committed to and/or interested in progressing a greater role, significance and place for relational leadership and learning in vocations of all kinds— in communities, in personal and professional contexts, with nature and the built environment.

Relationships are fundamental and foundational to how and what we learn—to our humanity, to our connections and engagement with people, place, and the natural world.

We invite you to participate in the Second International Dialogue on Relational Leadership and Learning for Hope-full and Sustainable Futures being held in Adelaide, Australia at Flinders University, 8-10 July 2015.

Call for Papers

Papers (up to 2000 words in length) are invited which illuminate and explore the focus of the event. APA referencing (see www.flinders.edu.au/slc_files/Documents/Brochures/apa_referencing.pdf) is required.

Abstracts of 100-150 words must be submitted by Friday 6 March 2015 to marja.vanbreda@flinders.edu.au.

Due date for completed Papers for external referees is Friday 22 May 2015.

Registration

The International Dialogue will be held at the School of Education, Flinders University, Adelaide, South Australia: www.flinders.edu.au.

The event cost is AUD$350 for 3 days with optional daily and full-time non-working student rates. The costs includes refreshments and lunch. Not included are accommodation, breakfast and evening meals. The event dinner on Thursday 9th July is an additional optional cost.

IMPORTANT NOTE: At the end of the payment process a Receipt/Tax Invoice is produced. Please PRINT and keep this for your records as copies are not able to be send to you at a later date.
