

A symposium for service providers, policy-makers, businesses, researchers, students and interested individuals, to share local and international knowledge and experiences on:

Flinders
UNIVERSITY

inspiring achievement

Preventing and Responding to Gender-Based Violence

When: Friday 22 June 2018

Where: Room 1, Level 1, Flinders University, 182 Tarntanyangga\Victoria Square

Time: 8.30am – 9.15am Registration
9.15am – 4.30pm Speakers and Panellists

Confirmed presenters and panellists include:

Erin Gillen, Senior Policy Advisor Children and Young People, Our Watch

Nancy Bates, Singer-songwriter; and Barkindji woman

Tran Thi Minh Huong, International Relations Department, Vietnam Women's Union

Pam Price, Associate, Gender Consortium, Flinders University and former Australian Volunteer for International Development

Australia Award Fellows, from Vietnam and Indonesia

Gina Zoia, Facilitator, Performer and Founder of Hoi Polloi – slightly organized, spontaneous group singing

Sara Mansour, Co-Founder of NOW Australia

Katharine Annear, Lecturer, Disability and Community Inclusion, Flinders University and Chair, The Autistic Self Advocacy Network of Australia and New Zealand

Margie Charlesworth, Co-convenor, Women with Disabilities SA

Ellen Fraser-Barbour, PhD Candidate, Disability and Community Inclusion, Flinders University

Registration:

To register and pay for this event, please click link here:

<http://events.flinders.edu.au/show/event/preventing-and-responding-to-gender-based-violence>

Register by Monday 18th June 2018

Limited seating

Morning and afternoon tea; and light lunch is included in your registration.

KIK Caters

Direct enquiries to Genevieve Chaffey (08) 8201 3931 or gm@flinders.edu.au

www.flinders.edu.au

Government of South Australia

Office for Women

